Brittany Netzke, Assisted Living Director is busy with her chickens again this year! She has 25 chickens, of which five to seven are roosters and are all different breeds (i.e., Leghorns, Brahmas, Olive Eggers, Easter Eggers, and Orpingtons). This year, the price of each hen is between $11-$52; that's a lot!

Twelve little eggs will arrive this week and will be placed in the incubator lent by the U of I Extension Office. Have a look below for their schedule. We hope you will watch them hatch into fluffy little chicks!
